On October 21, Femina, India's leading lifestyle brand, hosted the Femina Achievers 2024: Maharashtra Edition, co-powered by Bajaj Allianz General Insurance and Nirman Greens in association with Ruby Hall Clinic, at the Hyatt Regency Pune to celebrate exceptional talent and resilience across diverse fields. With awards spanning entertainment, social work, business, and innovation, this event honoured people whose efforts have had a significant impact and influence on Maharashtra.

The night was attended by prominent figures who shared their perspectives on leadership and empowerment, including former Union Minister and founder of the Alliance for Global Good Smriti Irani, philanthropist Usha Kakade, and Commissioner of Women and Child Welfare Dr Prashant Narnaware.

The appearance of well-known movie stars Mahima Chaudhry, Mrinal Kulkarni, Arjan Bajwa, Milind Gunaji, and Siddharth Jadhav added to the evening's charm. Each was applauded for their lasting impact on the cultural landscape of the state and the country and for being role models of dedication and excellence. The Femina Achievers 2024: Maharashtra Edition reinforced the positive effect these honourees have on society, empowering others to pursue excellence and make a difference.

Ambika Muttoo, Editor-in-Chief of Femina, said, "At Femina, we believe in recognising the work of trailblazers who embody courage, innovation, and resilience. Their dedication and creativity always inspire others to strive better and soar high." F
